In the Winter of 1914, the founders of the Old Lyme art colony created the Lyme Art Association, so artists and their patrons would have a place to call their own.
(And maybe even sell some paintings!)

Ninety Years Later, in the winter of 2004,
The Old Lyme Inn has created our most welcoming menu ever, with a host of Nightly Specials well under $20,
so today's artists, and their patrons,
can enjoy a relaxing meal around our fireplace,
(and look forward to the bill, as well as the food.)

We've made our Grill Room (some call it the Tap Room) more comfortable and affordable, so you can come after the show and make an evening of it.

We've done away with the tablecloths, added more wines-by-the-glass, and created a "Blackboard Menu" with ever changing Nightly Specials like these:

Penne in Vodka Sauce with Grilled Chicken	Moroccan Braised Lamb Shank
Shrimp Scampi over Linguini	Cod in Lobster Sauce
Chicken a la Moutard over Pappardelle Noodles	Seafood Fra Diabolo
Lemon Pepper Chicken and French Fries	Nightly Healthy Fish Special

(There'll be new specials every night, and all come with salad or coleslaw included)

Then, there'll be some "Standards" like:

Beef Pot Pie, Steak Frites, Fish and Chips, French Dip, Hot Roast Beef Sandwich on a Kaiser Roll, Sesame Chicken Tenders and our ever-popular Hamburger. (All served with French Fries and Coleslaw.)

Call for Reservations 434-2600, or just drop in after the Show.

(In the future, feel free to park in our lot, so you can just walk over.)

And for those of you who have come to enjoy our more elegant "Winslow Dining Room," of course it's still open Friday and Saturday Nights with live Piano Music, Serving our wonderful Seasonal Menu as well as our famous Steak Menu.

(Our Winter Menu and Steak Menu are available in the Grill Seven Days a Week!)

Thank you to the Old Lyme Inn for their support of this exhibition program.
